

Beauty • Goodness • Righteousness • Joy • Freedom • Striving • Sacrificial Service

On the Occasion of . . .
TSG's 37th Anniversary - 2024
 by Gita Saraydarian

You are Welcome! It is an honor to observe TSG's 37th Anniversary. As this year ends, we are facing the most beautiful and bountiful challenge we have ever faced! Just seventeen years ago at our 20th anniversary, I had to face you and say we needed to raise funds to publish the remaining of Torkom's books. I said we could not print any more books if we were not able to raise more funds. We would have been unable to work on manuscripts and all publishing work would have had to stop!

Well, thanks to you, that never happened. You, friends and supporters, came through and today, I can joyfully say that we have published almost all the books, and we have only two left to complete!

We have a beautiful, expansive, Spiritual Development Center that was built on the Seven Principles (Beauty, Goodness, Righteousness, Joy, Freedom, Striving, Sacrificial Service) of the Ageless Wisdom Teachings that were intentionally matched to the principles of equity, energy, water, materials used, place, beauty, health and happiness.

Our library is a shining example of a serene space where it houses some of the great thoughts of humanity.

Our sanctuary, offices, meeting rooms, and grounds are serene, beautiful, and peaceful.

There is so much we have accomplished. Now, we face a new day that will take all of us together to go to a new level of safekeeping and delivering the Torkom Saraydarian creative expressions of the Ageless Wisdom Teachings.

Make Your Impact Last!

What do we need to do now and into the future?

- We need your participation in our classes, monthly full moon virtual classes, and our annual conference at Wesak.
- We need you to give generously to help us fund more classes and reach more people.
- We need you to help fund our Solar Panels and parking structure to take advantage of the plentiful sunshine in Arizona and help us to become carbon neutral.
- We need you to give to the International Brotherhood Fund that provides shipping expenses to distributors overseas.
- Your generosity will help us expand our music program and sacred songs.

- Your generosity will help us purchase more books for our library.
- As the generosity grows, so will our outreach programs and talented staff. There is no limit to our creativity and our passion to spread the Teaching.
- And we will cultivate new talent and new leadership to continue the work we were given by Torkom and that will continue after we are on the next part of our journey.

Together, we will release the beautiful fragrance of the Teaching to everyone willing to listen. We will teach, give seminars, give classes, inspire people to learn and to go beyond themselves. Imagine passing on the magic and mystery of group upliftment and developing a real community. I want people to experience the same mystery of collective upliftment, that community feeling that I experienced for years in classes and seminars with Torkom. I may have forgotten details of these seminars, but I do remember the psychic energy that flowed and how it inspired me and gave me courage. It is energy created by a group of people focused on the remarkable energy of the Teaching.

Deep reading and meditation help us find paths for wisdom to flourish. I have witnessed how the mind and the process of scientific meditation increase our intuitive creative activities. It makes us generous, open-hearted, and ready to embrace the world.

Humans have potential for greatness when we strive together. Great people, Masters and saints are just like us. They worked hard and they learned to focus on the most essential. They supported each other and built a community that continued beyond their lifetimes.

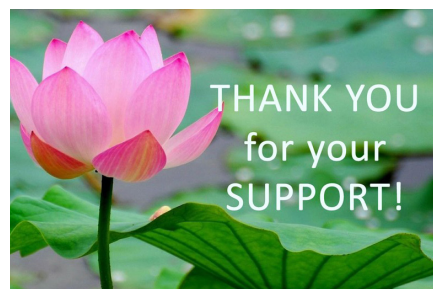

I welcome you to face the challenges for greatness with me. Join me in spreading the greatness of the Teaching. Join me in scientific meditation. Join me by becoming a part of the TSG Ashram group and meditate daily with like-minded and like-hearted people from around the world. Join me and let us become one strong group dedicated to Beauty, Goodness, Righteousness, Joy, Freedom, Striving toward Perfection, and Sacrificial Service. Let our lives be one of great service for a great cause: an open mind, and open and generous heart, and strong will to give and to continue forever on the path.

Thank you. Ever in the one work,

Gita Saraydarian
